NASA/IEEE MSST2006, the Fourteenth NASA Goddard / Twenty-Third IEEE Conference on Mass Storage Systems and Technologies, will host a Vendor Expo May 15-18, 2006 at the University of Maryland University College Conference Center, in College Park, Maryland.

To reserve space in the Expo, contact Gary Sobol, (+1-303-378-4732 or GZSobol@aol.com) to check space availability and receive an exhibit space number. Once space has been confirmed, register using either the online vendor registration form or the printable PDF vendor registration form at <http://www.tisconferences.com/msst2006>. Please allow several days for your company to be listed on the registered vendors page.

Each basic exhibit space is approximately 7.5' wide by 10' deep, but there are also 3 larger corner spaces and 3 quad spaces. (See the Vendor Expo Layout diagram). The fees for exhibit spaces, each of which includes a 3' by 6' table, 2 chairs, and registration for one person, are: $1950 for a basic space, $3950 for a corner space (booths 7, 13, 18), and $4450 for a quad space (booths 9, 10, 11) Additional Expo Passes are available at a cost of $450 per badge. A badge will be required to staff a vendor booth. Vendor participants will have full access to all conference activities, including paper presentations, refreshments, lunches, receptions, and will receive a copy of the Conference Proceedings. Payments must be received 30 days from the date an exhibit space number is assigned.

Brede Exposition Services will handle logistics for shipping and setup, and will contact vendors to finalize arrangements. There will be additional costs for electrical, phone, and network connections. Information on cost and reservation procedures for these additional items will be provided by Brede Exposition Services:
